Gender equality is a topic that has sparked an abundance of controversies all over the world! Specifically, Gender Equality means that all people around the world, regardless of their gender, acquire the same opportunities in every kind of domain! Also, they possess access to the same rights and own the freedom to express themselves, without any kind of hesitation!

But this particular topic is not pulled of in a cornucopia of countries because of a host of nuisances! For instance, women often have to deal with the fact that men are favored more than them in various fields! For example employment!! Furthermore, a lot of men reckon that they are physiologically and mentally stronger than women something that ultimately demotes women's value!

Another problem that women come across with, is that they are constantly harassed by men especially in the occupation's realm something that it's truly very difficult to be altered!

Subsequently , there are more ways that could surely help for managing this specific goal! For instance, organizations for protecting women's rights must be created and also every woman who is molested in any kind of way, must cite the incident in the authorities as fast as possible!

In my opinion , a fresh start can be cropped up with having women in leading positions in considerable fields: to illustrate , politics!

To draw a conclusion , I reckon that women are definitely trying very harsh to purchase a role similar to men in that society and we should support them in any single way!
